3RD ISSUE- LAST EDITION= JUNE 29-JULY 4.....

LET'S ALL HAVE A GRAND TIME DURING OUR ' CENTENNIAL DAYS ' ... Great days are ahead for SCHERERVILLE,.Lake County, Indiana.... On the threshold of a great celebration, the likes of which we've never before seen here... almost everybody is "wrapped up" in history.

The natives, particularly older people, are reliving the days of yore and are literally sitting on grandpa's knee listening to him tell how he came to "Schererville"... the Indian episodes, how tough things really were for the pioneers.

We don't mean to belittle them one bit. It's great to revel in so colorful a past. Even the third and fourth generations are finding plenty to hash over and, quite often we hear of fire-side chats (in air-conditioned living rooms or patios, of course) that end up with the younger generation disagreeing on certain aspects even as their elders have- and are.

Anyway, Gentennial time is upon us, starting with a grandiose old time parade, bargain days, promenades, ball games, etc. So, let's enjoy our peeks into the past... have a good time with the parades and pageant- (" A CENTURY AT THE CROSSROADS") wear our Centennial costumes with un-bounded joy... show our thousands of visitors that SCHERERVILLE really is a GRAND TOWN !!!

TO SCHERERVILLE:
AND OUR FOLKS:

"LITTLE TOWN"

I like to live in a little town, Where the trees meet across the street,
Where you wave your hand and say "Hello" to everyone you meet.
I like to stand for a moment outside the grocery store and listen to the friendly gossip of the folks that live next door.
For life is interwoven with the friends we learn to know.
And we hear their joys and sorrows as we daily come and go. So I like to live in a little town, I care no more to roam.
For every house in a little town is more than a house, It's HOME.

Eleanor Murzyn, Chairwoman of the Centennial Belles , announces Costume Contest Rules for the Schererville Belles. She also announces that there will be three categories to be judged: (1) Most authentic costume, (2) Best replica costume, and (3) Best mother-daughter costume.
